THE BORDER ART PRIZE 2016

Friday 6 May - Sunday 10 July

The Border Art Prize is an annual exhibition for artists of the region showcasing the abundance of artistic talent in this area. The Prize is an ongoing collaboration between Tweed Regional Gallery and Gold Coast City Gallery with the venue alternating each year. In 2016 prize money is provided by Tweed Shire Council, The Friends of the Tweed Regional Gallery and Margaret Olley Art Centre Inc.and artist, teacher and patron of the arts, Shirley Kennedy.

Artists from Tweed Shire and Gold Coast City, and the adjoining areas of Scenic Rim Region, Ballina, Byron and Kyogle Shires and Lismore, Logan and Redland City council areas are eligible to enter. Entries may be 2D or 3D and in any still media. For practicality restrictions are placed on size, weight and display considerations. The Border Art Prize is not a curated exhibition, rather it is pre-selected from a large number of entries. This year the Gallery received 369 artworks and has displayed 279 resulting in a salon style hang which aims to represent the wide range of styles and media received. The resulting exhibition offers Gallery visitors a glimpse of the diverse range of artistic talent in the region. The 2016 Judge was renowned artist, Euan Macleod, who travelled from Sydney to judge the prize.

2016 winners: first prize - Robyn Sweaney I second prize - Zom Osborne I third prize - Sean Connors
Shirley Kennedy Encouragement Awards: $500 Ruth Park and Andrew Hmelnitsky I $250 Emma Jewry and Laura Tate
Judge's Highly Commended Awards: Fiona Blake I Margaret Clapp I Annie Long I Rick Molloy
