

CPM National Print Awards
The Temporary Exhibitions Gallery

Friday 19 April – Sunday 2 June

---

Community Printmakers Murwillumbah (CPM) is proud to have organised the CPM National Print Awards from its inception in 1991 to the 15th Awards in 2013. The CPM Committee is pleased to announce that the judge of the 2013 Awards is Anne Ryan, Curator of Australian Prints at the Art Gallery of New South Wales.

The Award categories and prize money include: the Tweed Shire Council Acquisitive Award $5,000, Friends of the Gallery Acquisitive Award $2000, the Tony Abernethy Memorial Award (acquisitive) $1000, the Leslie J Pulman Award for Humour in Art $500, the Barbara Carroll Award for Socio-Political Comment $400, and the NORTEC Young Artist Award $500. In 2013, CPM has initiated two new Award categories, the CPM Award $1,000 and CPM Members Award $500, totalling $10,900 in prize money.

The Award sponsors are to be commended for their continuing commitment, as are Australian printmakers who support the Awards by entering the competition.

The CPM National Print Awards are organised by Community Printmakers Murwillumbah in partnership with the Tweed River Art Gallery.

---

Kaye L Green

The thinker 2010

lithograph on paper

28.0 x 38.0cm

Acquired as the Winner of the Friends of the Gallery Acquisitive Award through the CPM National Print Awards, 2011. Tweed River Art Gallery collection.