FREE DROP IN ACTIVITIES for FAMILIES

Sunday 9 April | 11.00am - 1.00pm | Objects of Desire: Creative Clay

Visit the exhibition Objects of Desire: Contemporary Clay. There are lots of different styles of clay work on display. Some look like flowers, mountains and jars. There are some beautiful bowls and little pots. Think about what shapes you like best and then join Marianne Galluzzo in the Gallery Foyer to make your own small clay piece. We'll be working with pinch pots and coil building –you can make them into any shape you like.

Wednesdays – Sundays | 10.00am - 5.00pm | Gallery for kids

Drop in during gallery opening hours and get drawing with the kids. Taking inspiration from Slipstitch, an exhibition of contemporary embroidery, use your pencil as a thread and draw stitches to make a picture that looks like sewing. Copy the fancy stitches or create your own design. | Pick up a copy of the MOAC Kid's Guide and learn about Margaret Olley while completing the suggested activities. | Head on down to the Margaret Olley Art Centre to listen to a symphony on headphones while you create a digital artwork on the iPads. | The Gallery is closed on Good Friday.
