Tweed Regional Gallery Foundation Ltd Membership

The history of the Tweed Regional Gallery & Margaret Olley Art Centre (formerly the Tweed River Art Gallery) is abundant with stories of passionate and dedicated individuals whose vision and generosity have contributed to the development and success of the Gallery and its operations.

The Gallery is a dynamic and accessible facility which connects art and community. There are many ways individuals, families and companies can help create this vision.

One of the most popular ways to support the Tweed Regional Gallery & Margaret Olley Art Centre is to become a member of the Foundation.

The Tweed Regional Gallery Foundation Ltd assists the Gallery in developing its collection of works of art and improving the facilities and operations of the Gallery as a legacy for future generations. The Foundation aims to attract and encourage donations, gifts, bequests and other forms of financial assistance for the Gallery, ensuring that the facility continues to provide professional and engaging programs for the enjoyment of patrons.

The Tweed Regional Gallery Foundation Ltd is registered with the Australian Taxation Office as a Deductible Gift Recipient. All cash donations are therefore tax deductible. A tax deductible donation to the Foundation establishes a lasting relationship with the Gallery and through its program of events, members enjoy an enduring involvement with the building and its development.

Members of the Foundation assist the Gallery by:

- Providing funds to acquire works of art for the Collection
- Supporting community-related activities such as education and public programs for children and adults
- Assisting in the presentation of major exhibitions of national and international art

Membership of the Foundation is available to individuals, families and companies. Donations of $1,000 or more provide eligibility for membership to the Tweed Regional Gallery Foundation Ltd and will have their name added to the Donor Board or upon request, donors may remain anonymous.

Companies and corporations wishing to support the Gallery through a partnership of collaborative ventures are encouraged to contact the Foundation through the Gallery Director who can provide details of networking, sponsorship and other benefits to enhance your profile in the community.

Benefits of Foundation membership include:

- Invitations to special exhibition previews and receptions
- Invitations to exhibition openings
- Acknowledgement on the Donor Board
- An annual Foundation dinner
- Regular mailings from the Gallery

For more information about becoming a member of the Foundation, or to receive other information on the many ways you can support the Gallery, please contact the Foundation through the Gallery Director.
