

Welcome to Murwillumbah

On the banks of the Tweed River, Murwillumbah is the creative and cultural hub of the Tweed Valley. A vintage country town dotted with colourful art deco buildings, where local business owners have restored historic federation style buildings into cafés, restaurants and boutiques.

The character filled streets that adorn the township are home to wholefood cafés, local designer shops, a regional museum and the historic Regent Cinema.

Murwillumbah markets

Visit Murwillumbah Farmers Market, 7 to 11am each Wednesday at the Murwillumbah Showground, to meet the producers, stock up on homemade miso, wood fired sour dough and local cheese from the many dairy producers of the region.

Murwillumbah Makers and Finders Market is an excellent venue for artists, vintage wares and musicians from the Tweed Region.

Enjoy beautiful Knox Park and support local small businesses every third Saturday of the month, 9am–2pm.

Held on the 4th Sunday each month, the Murwillumbah Showground Market is hosted by the Tweed River Agricultural Society. Funds raised are used to assist the Society to maintain the Showgrounds in its current picturesque condition. Enjoy a leisurely stroll around approximately 100 stalls with a great variety of treasures to purchase.

TWEED REGIONAL GALLERY & MARGARET OLLEY ART CENTRE | MURWILLUMBAH

The Tweed Regional Gallery & Margaret Olley Art Centre is housed in a large, modern, architecturally award-winning building with views to Wollumbin/Mount Warning.

The Gallery's seven exhibition spaces present a dynamic program of historical to contemporary touring exhibitions, alongside exhibitions showcasing the work of regional, national and international artists.

The Margaret Olley Art Centre celebrates the career, life and legacy of Margaret Olley, Australia's most celebrated painter of still life and interiors.

The Gallery also includes a workshop and education space, research library, the Gallery Shop and the Gallery Café offering panoramic views of the Tweed River.

TWEED REGIONAL MUSEUM MURWILLUMBAH

The Tweed Regional Museum Murwillumbah is located in the original Shire Council Chambers of 1915.

The award winning multi-million dollar extension and refurbishment of the facility restored the Chambers to its former glory and now flows into a spacious and modern exhibition area.

Vibrant permanent displays bring the Tweed's history to life through stories of our past. Changing displays showcase the Tweed Regional Museum collection, along with contemporary stories about places, events and people significant to the Tweed community.
