

Go figure

Works from the collection

The Withey Family Gallery

Friday 13 October 2017 – Sunday 21 October 2018

Go figure presents a selection of works from the Gallery's collection that showcase dynamic representations of the human figure.

This exhibition is inspired by a group of spectacular works in bronze by the renowned sculptor Rayner Hoff and his students Marjorie Fletcher and Barbara Tribe, on loan to the Gallery from the private collection of a member of Marjorie Fletcher's family. These sculptures form the physical and conceptual centrepiece of a diverse display of works from the Gallery's collection.

One of the primary focus areas of the Gallery's collection is Australian portraits, and our holdings include a wide range of figurative works that include representations of the proud solitary figure, the classic bust of head and shoulders, the dynamic interaction of a figurative group, and contemporary interpretations of the body.

Artists featured include: Ella Dreyfus, Stephen Dupont, Marjorie Fletcher, Robert Hannaford, Rayner Hoff, Petrina Hicks, Angus McDonald, Rod McNicol, Daniel Moynihan, Monica Rohan, Jenny Sages, Barbara Tribe and Greg Weight.

The Gallery thanks the family of Marjorie Fletcher for their generous loan of works to this exhibition.
