

2020 ARCHIBALD PRIZE

An Art Gallery of New South Wales touring exhibition

2020 Archibald Prize Regional Tour

Withey Gallery

Friday 22 January to Sunday 7 March 2021

---

Tweed Regional Gallery & Margaret Olley Art Centre is the first stop on the 2020 Archibald Prize Regional Tour.

Awarded to the best painting of a notable Australian, the Archibald Prize is a 'who's who' of Australian culture, from politicians to celebrities and from sporting heroes to artists. Prestigious and controversial, the Archibald Prize is Australia's foremost portraiture prize. Now in its 99th year, the Archibald Prize has been held annually since 1921. An open competition, the Archibald Prize is judged by the Trustees of the Art Gallery of NSW. Entries to the Archibald Prize must be painted in the past year from at least one live sitting. Finalists are exhibited at the Art Gallery of New South Wales before embarking on a year-long regional tour.

This is a ticketed exhibition:

Young Archie Competition

Gallery Foyer

Budding artists between the ages of 5 and 18 years were invited to submit a portrait for the Young Archie competition, as part of our family-focused activities for the Archibald Prize regional tour.

The portraits are of a person who is special to the young artist – someone who is known to them and plays a significant role in their life. The Young Archie competition was open to residents of the Tweed, Ballina, Byron, Kyogle shires, Gold Coast and Lismore City. The entries were judged by the Gallery's Education & Audience Development Officer Jodi Ferrari and Tweed Shire Council's Community Development Officer Families and Youth Sylvia Roylance. Shortlisted entries will be displayed in the Gallery and artist Victoria Reichelt will award the final winners across all age categories who will be awarded prize money provided courtesy of ANZ.
